What is Bible Week in Derby?

“Bible Week in Derby” is an annual event which welcomes everyone willing to meet together for excellent Bible teaching, praise and fellowship. In the tradition of the Keswick Convention with which it is associated, the purpose of Bible Week is to deepen spiritual life and to promote personal, practical and scriptural holiness.

For the first twelve years the Week was based at Osmaston Road Baptist Church but as an interdenominational event it now moves to different churches. After three years at Littleover Methodist Church, it is now in its third year at Woodlands Evangelical Church. The “Keswick in Derby” committee are grateful to the elders for allowing them to use these first class premises.

The evening meetings are timed to start at 7.30pm with worship and praise; they are expected to close about 9.00pm to give time for fellowship and a visit to the Wesley Owen bookstall.

An offering is taken during the meeting to defray the costs incurred by the committee in arranging the event. To find out more, please visit: www.bibleweekinderby.org.uk

The Keswick in Derby committee comprises:

Rev Neil Barber	St. Giles'
Tim Houghton	Woodlands Evangelical
